

Do you want to be Naughty or Nice this Holiday Season?

Give the gift of love this holiday season. Something that will take the Ho Hum out and put the Ohhhh Yum back in. Something that will brighten his/her eyes on Christmas morning and keep him/her smiling all the way to New Years. All you have to choose is how daring you want to go; nice or oh so naughty?

Want to jingle her bells:

Nice

-Put on a little piece of sexy underwear, like the Tarzan G-String or Zakk Microfibre. Both very comfortable and seductive.

-Run a warm bath and add some Kama Sutra Treasure of the Sea, turn the water aurora blue like the warm sensual Caribbean and tantalizes the senses. Nourishes, moisturizes and invigorates the skin. Undress her and lead her to the bath.

-Put a Massage Pillow behind her head to relax.

-Light a candle, try the Flame of Love. This candle is aromatic so it smells passionate and can be drizzled on the body and gives a light warmth as you massage it into the body, and watch her shoulders drop.

-Serve her a glass of her favorite beverage and bring her an erotic book to read to get her in the sexy mood. Get the Agua Erotica - stories for a steamy bath and it's waterproof so she can get extra comfortable as there are no worries about getting wet pages, just have to wait to get wet yourself!

Naughty

-Then re-join her naked and soap her down with the Pulsa Bath Sponge Ball. This vibrating round sponge cleans and exfoliates the skin as it works out the knots from head to toe and likes to stop in the middle too.

-Now jump in and join her and play a game of Bathtub Bubbles. These bubbles contain fun water activities that you can do one after the next for some extra quality tub fun to get real close and clean.

-Stand her up with you behind her and fondle her breasts and watch the silhouette of her breasts jingle and dance on the wall from the Flame of Love candle.

-Take some silicone lubricant, ID Millennium or O'My Infinity, as it is waterproof and put on your fingers and tease her clitoris that is screaming for attention already. But just tease it gently as your penis caress her bum.

-Wrap around the base of your penis a SS Bullet and Cock Sleeve, turn her around and give her a personal stocking stuffer that will jingle her bells into tomorrow.

Want to jingle his bells:

Nice

-Gently wake him up with a passionate sensual massage. Start with gentle kisses to the face with some fingernail strokes through his hair. Read the Erotic Massage Book for all the moves from head to toe.

-Use the Kama Sutra Aromatic Massage Oil to nourish and awaken his skin.

-For a simple and extremely arousing massage use the Fuzuoko 5 Finger Massage Glove to get into all the large muscle groups and the delicate erogenous zones.

-Make a little fruit tray with whip cream and Chocolate Fantasy Body Topping. Start with a delicious kiss on the lips and then lick and nibbling your way down.

-Stop at the belly button and put a Love Mask on him so he can really feel every little nibble. When you take away a sense, it enhances the rest.

-Then you can extra tease his senses and add a drop or two of Silent Seduction Pheromones to your breasts and let him inhale your scent as you cuddle. This product has the highest amount of active pheromones than any product on the market.

Naughty

-He may start to get restless and so you should tie him down so you can continue to take control of your surprise. The 4 Cuffs You set or the 7 piece Fantasy Restraint Kit are both excellent. Tie his arms down one by one and then open his legs into a spread eagle. Both these products have tethers long enough that you don't require bedposts, just bed legs. If no bed legs, tie the arms together as well as the legs.

-Take a Fantasy Tickler Feather or Whip and tickle and tease all over and circle the penis. Blow a little hot air there but do not touch it...yet.

-Tell him he has been naughty and what you are going to do to him next and he better not move or you will leave the room until he is good and still again. Then take your Flame of Love warmed massage oil and drip a little around the nipples and then the belly button and then closer. Don't worry this is a very lightly warmed product-really you will be able to stick your finger in the massage oil while it is lit. You can even put it right on his shaft.

-Proceed to give him a mind blowing blowjob. Check out the video by the Sinclair series, "How to Give A World Class Blowjob" and jingle his bells and whistle.

Wouldn't it be naughty and nice to wake up on Christmas Day to some OJ/Champagne and a special holiday orgasm!
